

THAIPUSAM

On 30th Jun I went to Dhoby Ghaut to experience 'Thaipusam'. In all honesty I didn't expect it to be good, but actually it was more amazing than I thought. I don't understand the Hindu and believe no religion, however I think it's important for us to keep up and respect a tradition like this.

After that, I show some pictures to other international students in my hostel and my sister. They says it is too dangerous and frightening to hurt themselves and it's meaningless.

But the devotees will to do it, so there is no blame for them, or rather this act is very fantastic and memorable.

So it is regrettable that some people think that. If I get a next chance, I hope very much to recommend to them that they should experience it. It must be unforgettable and thrilling for them.
